

What is InfoBites?

InfoBites is a members-only weekly email reporting the three most important news stories on dental infection prevention and safety from the previous week. The email is sent every Monday at 9:00 AM Eastern and will help you stay current and be able to provide the latest information to your patients, students, and others.